PRAYER FOR TODAY

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect
in one communion and fellowship
in the mystical body of your Son
Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

NEWS

PCC - Monday 5th November, 8pm, Church Rooms

The Parochial Church Council looks forward to welcoming Juliet Evans, Diocesan Stewardship Advisor, who we hope will help us to think about some of the financial aspects of parish church life. Juliet works alongside parishes in the following areas: Planned Giving, Project Funding and Grants, Wills and Legacies and Gift Aid. All are welcome to join us until about 9pm. TS

CHURCH SOUND SYSTEM

We're having some problems with the microphones and looking at the best options for repair and replacement. We can probably afford what is needed, but sorting it out could cost at least £400-500 (I'm guessing). Perhaps you are in a position to support this, partially or fully. If so, please have a quiet word with me or the treasurer. Many thanks. T

JAM JARS

Do you have any Jam Jars cluttering your cupboards that you no longer need. Please speak with Beth she would be delighted to take them off your hands.

CHURCHYARD WORKING PARTY

A big thank you to everyone who turned up on Saturday to continue our work on the churchyard. Although it was disappointing that we didn't see anyone who doesn't come on our regular Friday work days. However, we still managed to clear a lot of brambles and partially clear the area at the end of the churchyard where wood and grass cuttings have piled up until we uncovered a mature grass snake some 2' in length at which point we stopped in case we were destroying a habitat. We also weeded flower beds, cleared the path of weeds, pruned shrubs and picked up leaves although you wouldn't know that as the trees have shed more! Many thanks once again to our dedicated little team.

SEND VILLAGE CEREMONY OF REMEMBRANCE

On 11th November at around 3.30/3.45pm we are looking for volunteers to help with the tea and coffee after the Remembrance Service at our War Memorial in Send. If you are able to offer some help please speak with Jean Turner, tel: 223621.

STIR-UP SUNDAY APPROACHETH

Stir Up Sunday is approaching and we would appreciate donations of the following for our Celebration Christmas Cakes:
Butter / stork, Eggs (lots), Plain Flour, Cherries, Dried fruit (including , currants, sultanas, raisins,etc), Fondant icing – WHITE, marzipan (NOT the pre rolled thanks), A pack of red and green fondant, Apricot jam, Dark Brown Sugar
Ingredients can be left in church or at the vicarage [please don't leave on the door step as they will get eaten!!!]
Once again, I would appreciate help with making the cake boards and delivering the cakes. Please let me have names of people who would appreciate a cake - may be someone who needs some TLC, is poorly or would just like a cake!

MOTHERS UNION – ADVENT SERVICE

A date for your diary – we will be holding our Annual Advent Service on Monday 3rd December at 11.00am. All are Welcome.

MOTHERS UNION – CHRISTMAS LUNCH

Send Mothers Union is once again having a Christmas lunch this year it will be held on Friday 30th November at 12.30pm at the La Meridiana, in East Horsley. If any members of St Marys would like to join us then please let me know - Beth, email: shutters253@gmail.com tel no: 222193

SAFEGUARDING

Please note that if you have any safeguarding issues at all while Christine is out of action, please contact Ian Berry direct at Diocesan House – 0754 456 6850 – ian.berry@cofeguildford.org.uk

CHRISTMAS TREE & ANGEL FESTIVAL

This year we are combining our Christmas Fair with a Christmas Tree & Angel Festival over the weekend of 14 - 16 December. Some details are in this month's copy of "Outlook" and further details will appear in November's copy. As with everything we need people willing to help over the weekend; families or groups willing to enter a tree; children willing to enter an angel. Please speak with Sally for more information.

TRAI DCRAFT

Speak with Sally about the best way to order Christmas fare from Traidcraft this year and why not buy your cards from them and support several Christian charities at the same time – Traidcraft Exchange, CAFOD, SCIAF and Christian Aid. There is a strong possibility that Traidcraft plc will not be continuing in 2019. A final statement about the way ahead for them is expected by the end of October.

COFFEE SHOP

The Coffee Shop is open again on Monday 19th November 10-12pm, when the stall will be Red and White Tombola and the proceeds will go to The Defence and National Rehabilitation Centre (DNRC). Headley Court is closing and the facility is being transferred to Nottinghamshire where a huge state of the art facility to treat injured servicemen is being provided by the redevelopment of Stanford Hall (Opening 2018). For more information go to www.thednrc.org.uk. Any items for the stall can be given to Ann, Pat or Sylvia as usual.
